Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES HELD CONFERENCE IN HANOVER

The conference of the six Congregational churches, held in Hanover Wednesday, was favored with an ideal May day that contributed to an unusually large attendance.

Former residents of Hanover motored from Worcester and Hartford. Many ministers were present, including three from Norwich and others from New London county.

At the morning service the hymns and reading filled the stirring address of Rev. Warren S. Archibald of Hartford. Taking for his subject, The Abiding Values in the Pilgrim Faith he said in part: Five things are essential for a pilgrim. First, the pilgrim, who is a child of God, whose face turns naturally towards God. Second, the road. It is the Lord Jesus Christ who said, I am the Way, the best, the simplest way to God. The way is love. The spirit of the church should be the spirit of love. Third, like a flame, which may increase or may be quenched. To inspire the light within is to enter into the fullness of the understanding of His word. Fourth, the world through which the pilgrim moves. The soul moves through a world of law as the body does. What you sow you reap. If you leave the road and go into folly you must expect trouble. The goal of the journey is God. The end of your journey is what you have gathered in God's fields. You are journeying to a city which hath foundations whose builder and maker is God.

During the noon hour one of the dinners for which Hanover is noted was served to one hundred and fifty in the parish house.

At the afternoon session Rev. Edward Ayer of Mansfield gave a brief and inspiring talk on the Inter-Church movement. After Rev. Arthur Porter's address on America's Greatest Need, he adjourned to the parish house where the moving pictures on Japan and South America were especially fine and greatly appreciated by those who had come from neighboring towns including Norwich, Groton, Plainfield, Preston and Jewett City.

HOW TO SAVE MONEY

This Is Addressed to the Man Who Really Wants to

George Washington threw a dollar across the Potomac River, but in those days a dollar would go a good deal farther than in the present—and we don't believe the story anyway, because the immortal George wasn't one who threw money away. But just as a matter of argument, to show that money will go almost as far today, bring your pocket-book to the Boston Store, Thursday, Friday or Saturday, and your dollar will go almost as far as George's, and you will have considerably more to show for it.
